Name_____

Read the sentences below and finish the story.

Jake was packing his bag for back to school. He put everything from the list in his bag. Then he put in his supplies for his super secret plan. This year was going to be:

Name_____

Read the sentences below and finish the story.

As he walked into the school for the first time ever, he couldn't help but wonder what secrets this school held. What kind of adventures would he go on this year?

Name_____

Read the sentences below and finish the story.

It was time to buy new school clothes. As she walked into the store with her mom she knew something would go wrong.

Name_____

Read the sentences below and finish the story.

HIs backpack sat under the bed where it hid for the entire Summer. He hadn't touched it in months. He was scared of what he would find when he opened it.

Name_____

Read the sentences below and finish the story.

It was time to meet the new teacher. All Summer life was fun. Now was a the moment of truth. When the teacher walked in, the class gasped.

Name_____

Read the sentences below and finish the story.

Back to school meant back to Science. In the past there were many big problems that came from experiments. He was hoping this year would be different until he saw:

Name_____

Read the sentences below and finish the story.

He sat down with the History work for school. He couldn't help but think History would be more fun if he could see it happen. That's when:

Name_____

Read the sentences below and finish the story.

She sat down with her daily reading book. Before she knew it, she was on an adventure. Instead sitting down to school work, she was: