Name_____

Read the sentences below
and finish the story.

It was Independence Day. The family decided a visit to the Statue of Liberty would be a good idea. There was just one problem:

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

Name_____

Read the sentences below
and finish the story.

The family spread out their blankets to watch the fireworks. That is when they noticed that the fireworks were in very specific shapes. What could this mean?

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

Name_____

Read the sentences below
and finish the story.

Jenna woke to find herself the day they wrote the Declaration of Independence. They turned and asked her what she thought should be included. She said:

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

Name_____

Read the sentences below
and finish the story.

Jake went to sleep in 2016 but woke up on the fourth of july in a strange bed in 1776. What kind of adventure would come from this turn of events?

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

Name_____

Read the sentences below
and finish the story.

You have been chosen to celebrate the very first 4th of July. What kind of celebration do you organize? How would we celebrate if you were alive in the past?

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

Name_____

Read the sentences below
and finish the story.

Everyone sat down for the 4th of July picnic. As everyone looked at the table, the watermelon started to shake. Why was it shaking?

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

Name_____

Read the sentences below
and finish the story.

You are sitting before a sewing machine. It's your job to design the United States Flag. You reach for fabric and grab:

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

Name_____

Read the sentences below
and finish the story.

You are playing by the Liberty bell. Everything seems normal. You decide to hit it to see how it sounds. Then it starts to crack.

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____