Name_____

Read the sentences below
and finish the story.

The Native Americans and the Pilgrims met for a Thanksgiving meal. That was when they realized it. Something important was missing from the table.

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

Name_____

Read the sentences below
and finish the story.

It was Thanksgiving morning. The family was getting ready to prepare dinner. Then they realized the dog ate the turkey that was thawing. What would they do now?

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

Name_____

Read the sentences below
and finish the story.

It was the day before the first Thanksgiving. John was spending time learning how the Native Americans lived. Today he was learning to make a teepee. He was sure this wouldn't end well.

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

Name_____

Read the sentences below
and finish the story.

It was Thanksgiving week at school which meant that it was time to list the things you were thankful for. Joe sat with a pencil but all he could think was:

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

Name_____

Read the sentences below
and finish the story.

Thanksgiving was only a few short weeks away. The turkey knew what that meant. He had to escape and he needed a plan.

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

Name_____

Read the sentences below
and finish the story.

The Thanksgiving play was just around the corner. Instead of getting picked to play the Native American or the Pilgrim, Jenna was picked to play a pumpkin. How could she be a pumpkin? She had to find a way out of this.

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

Name_____

Read the sentences below
and finish the story.

It was the day of Thanksgiving dinner. Joe had been chosen to make the pie. There was just one problem. Joe had never made a pie in his life! This would not end well.

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

Name_____

Read the sentences below
and finish the story.

IJoe had to set the table for Thanksgiving. Most days he did things the way they should be done. Today he felt like playing a joke. As he stood in front of the table he had a fun idea.

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____